

CONSCIOUSLY UNBIASED X HIRETALENT

For businesses to thrive, your people also need to thrive. That's why leaders need to move towards "The Great Inclusion," where the emphasis is to leverage the power of diversity, equity, and inclusion across your whole workforce. Those who do will win the war for talent.

More organizations are realizing that contingent workers—such as consultants and freelancers—hold a big opportunity when it comes to advancing inclusion.

That's why Consciously Unbiased and HireTalent committed to partnering with SIA to continue tracking where companies are in terms of extending their DEI efforts to their contingent workforce with our new report "The Future of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion in the Contingent Workforce 2022." Last year, you inspired us to embrace and adopt the need for inclusion in contingent labor. This year, we're focused on turning intent into action, because what gets measured gets done.

You have the power to create change within your organization, so let's make work a better place, together.
