

YOUR PEOPLE MATTER

This Thanksgiving, we are thankful for everyone who has joined the Consciously Unbiased movement, for our partners, and for the leaders who are celebrating the differences in their teams to make work a great place to be. Your people are your company's greatest resource.

This video is a small snapshot of the Consciously Unbiased story, how it started, and why our team is personally passionate about making workplaces more human. Diversity, equity and inclusion isn't transitory; it shouldn't fall to the bottom of the priority list because of economic downturns. In fact, it matters even more. Because the type of workplaces you're creating today will help your company thrive tomorrow. Together, we can keep people at the heart of work.

Many thanks to all of you,
Ashish Kaushal, CEO, HireTalent & Founder, Consciously Unbiased

New Paths To Co-Employment

The best way to be irrelevant as an organization is to live in the past rather than evolve with the times. We need to change how we treat our extended workforce through policies that lay the groundwork for the future.
